Finding a job online made easy

Online platform for Impact Recruitment, a leading multi-division media and creative recruitment agency that has positive impact on businesses and careers alike.

The new website had to perform multiple functions and dynamically engage with businesses and candidates reassuring them they are in safe hands. Making the possibility of publishing jobs directly from an internal database to the website a reality, whilst building brand awareness through compelling content to engaging in real time via social media live on the site.

To be successful the site had to strategically work across all phases of the job finding cycle, from; finding a job online made easy, allocating a candidate a dedicated consultant to positioning the right candidate for the job. Showcasing Impacts extensive expertise to match its dynamic media clients with best candidate for the job to its positive impact on businesses and careers alike.
